OVERVIEW/COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course introduces the historical, literary, and cultural background and theological content of the Old Testament in light of the Reformed tradition.

This course is a required course for the M.A.R.T.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By participating fully in this class, students will be able to:

1. Outline the basic storyline of the Old Testament and to identify major genres, characters and key passages.
2. Identify and to articulate key theological themes in the Old Testament especially as interpreted in the Reformed tradition.
3. Analyze key passages in the Old Testament and explain how they function in the canon and within the Reformed tradition.
4. Grow in their ability to interpret Scripture for the life of the Christian community.

M.A.R.T. Curricular Goals Fulfilled by This Course:

- Identify and articulate the core commitments of the Christian tradition with a focus on the Reformed tradition
- Analyze how key theological terms and concepts emerged and function within the Christian tradition and, more specifically, the Reformed tradition
- Describe and evaluate the core commitments of the catholic and Reformed tradition in conversation with historical and contemporary critics.

Course Requirements (1000 points total)

1. Conscientious weekly responses in oral and written form to assigned readings. (600 points)

2. Midterm and Final Exams (100 points each; 200 points total)
3. A final paper on a subject proposed by student and approved by instructor. (200 points)
